

MY FRIEND MY HOME

Composed and Lyrics by Jason Chan

(Theme Song to "What Do Men Want?" TV Series by BananaMana Films)

I never want you to be, further away from me than this. This is the way friends should be

And if in time, we should part you should remember this my friend you are a one in a million find

I can't remember how I get through every day, without you around here

You are my soul. My song. My friend. My home. Just remember I will always be here for you

You are my soul. My song. My friend. My home. Just remember I will always be here for you, for you...
